MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT

NOW COMES DEFENDANT HOWARD E. LEVENTHAL, a non-attorney acting pro se, hereby respectfully submitting this Motion for Default Judgment against Contemnors Winston Paes and Christopher Delzotto. In support of this Motion, Leventhal states as follows:

1) On December 14, 2015 Contemnors were served with Defendant's Motion for Sanctions, Doc. No. 85 in this matter.

2) Under this Court's Local Criminal Rule 49.1(b) Contemnors' objections were due on Dec 28, 2015. As of Dec 30, 2015 no objections have been served by the Contemnors on the Defendant. Contemnors have admitted to the allegations of direct and indirect contempt.

3) With the exception of a copy of Doc. 85 and Doc. (___? Court's order granting access to the Government of the sealed matter of Doc. 83, order entered 12/17/2015), which were delivered to Defendant by Counsel Zissou, no service of any kind of any document, filing, pleading or order in this matter has been served upon Defendant at his current address for service (Metropolitan Detention Center, Brooklyn, NY).

4) Defendant had a pro se appearance on file before filing his Motion for Sanctions and the Contemnors, better than anybody, know where Leventhal is and have the resources at their disposal to serve him on a timely basis.

PRAYER

NOW THEREFORE Defendant Leventhal respectfully requests an order in accordance with Defendant's (Proposed) Sanctions Order on file in this matter, holding Contemnors in direct contempt, indirect contempt and for the additional relief expressed in the (Proposed) Sanctions Order.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED
